

India's Dedicated Homeland Security Event is Officially Launched

The Organisers of the internationally respected Global Security Asia Series based in Singapore are pleased to announce the launch of Global Security India 2010 (GSI 2010).

As one of the fastest growing economies in the world, India is currently facing serious and sophisticated threats to its national security. As a result both Federal and State Governments are increasing Homeland Security budgets by an average of 35% and much of this expenditure will be for the procurement of technically advanced systems and equipment to meet the immediate requirements of the following Agencies:

- Coastal Police/Coastguards
- Federal and State Police
- Border Protection Agencies
- Counter Terrorist Units
- Internal Security
